TEMPORARY CONTRACT ATTORNEY ANNOUNCEMENT

- POSITION: Contract Detention Attorney with the Rocky Mountain Immigrant Advocacy Network (RMIAN). This position is 0.75 FTE (30 hours/week).
- WHEN: June 21, 2010 through September 17, 2010.
- DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The detention attorney will primarily work with the Legal Orientation Program (LOP) at the Aurora immigration detention center. The detention attorney will be responsible for giving know-your-rights presentations, conducting individual intakes, and providing self-help workshops for detained individuals in removal proceedings. The detention attorney will research and write referral memos, screen and refer appropriate cases to pro bono attorneys, and mentor volunteers. The detention attorney also will be responsible for helping to supervise RMIAN's summer law student interns. Excellent opportunity to work with other advocates committed to ensuring justice for detained immigrants in a friendly and supportive office environment.
- QUALIFICATIONS: The ideal candidate has experience in immigration law, particularly deportation defense and detention work, a demonstrated commitment to social justice, excellent writing and communications skills, the ability to successfully balance a variety of responsibilities and some management and administrative experience. Spanish/English fluency required. Must be admitted to a bar and must pass a security clearance for the detention facility.
- SALARY: Commensurate with experience.
- OPEN-CLOSING DATE: Applications considered on a rolling basis; position open until filled.
- APPLICATIONS: Applicants should submit a cover letter, resume and three references to:
